LC: Can I generate appropriate questions??

Think about the book 'Oranges in No-Mans Land'

If you could meet any of the characters, what sort of questions would you ask them?

Write a list of questions you would like to ask a character from the book.

Remember, the questions must be based on what has happened to that character.

E.g:

Ayesha, how did you feel when you were in the back of the UN ambulance?
