

LC: Can I explore character's feelings
within key events of their life?

What has happened so far?

Can you identify the key features of an informal letter?

INFORMAL LETTER

Over the next few lessons we are going to draft our informal letter as if you were David writing to his mum (in London) about what has happened to him so far.

What are the most important events that have happened so far to David as an evacuee?

WHAT ARE DAVID'S KEY EVENTS SO FAR?

Leaving the train station, seeing boys cry

Experience on the train, packed in tightly holding the handles

At the hall being picked, left until last, though know one was going to pick him

Mr Reynolds

First day at school

HOW DID DAVID FEEL AT EACH KEY EVENT?

Scared

Nervous

Anxious

Relieved

Grateful

Feelings

Layout

Events

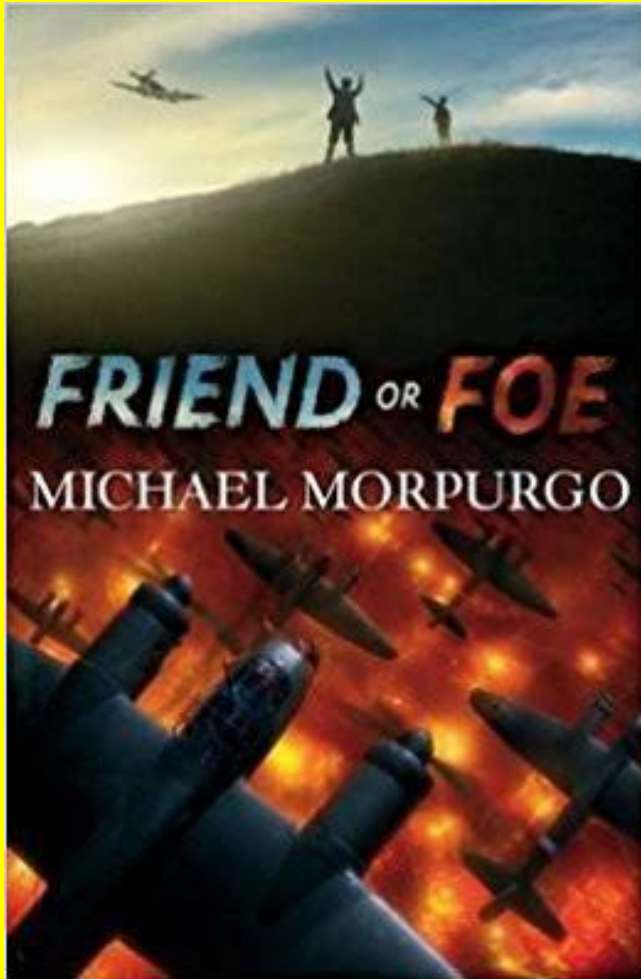

I am able to ...

I am starting to ...

I need more support to ...

LC: Can I draft out an informal letter from David's point of view?

What has happened so far?

Can you identify the key life event that has happened so far?

Which one of these key life events are the happiest? Saddest?

Why can you explain?

The happiest memory David has is... because...

However he was.....because.....

INFORMAL LETTER

46 Islington Rd,
London,
N18 7JW

Dear mom,

When we finally got to Devon it was dark. It made Tucky and I a bit scared and it got worse than that. Apart from having some nice soup and bread when we got there, we didn't get chosen by any of the village people. We thought we might have to stay in the village hall. All the other children got chosen and taken away except for me and Tucky. It was getting late and we were both pretty miserable and left out

We eventually got chosen by a farmer called Mr Reynolds. He looked scary but we find out that he was quite nice really. Both Tucky and I are now living on his farm with his wife and a sheepdog called Jip. We like it a lot and get to do jobs around the farm.

I miss you a lot, write soon.

Love, David x

Today we are drafting our informal letter.

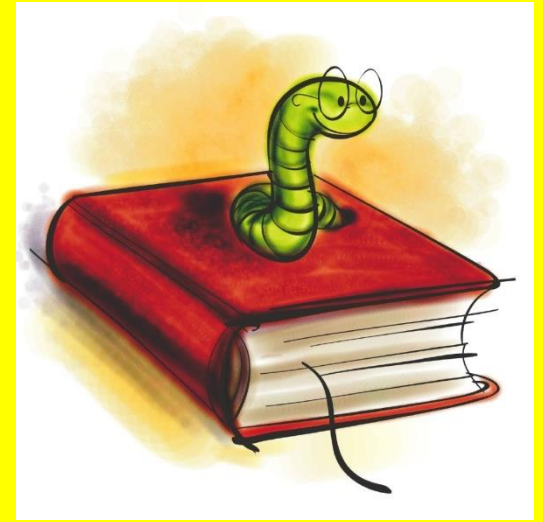

How can we improve this?

- Has the letter got all the features that an informal letter should have?
Rhetorical questions?
Address?
- Has it got informal language?
- Has it got thoughts and feelings?
- Relative clauses?

I am able to ...

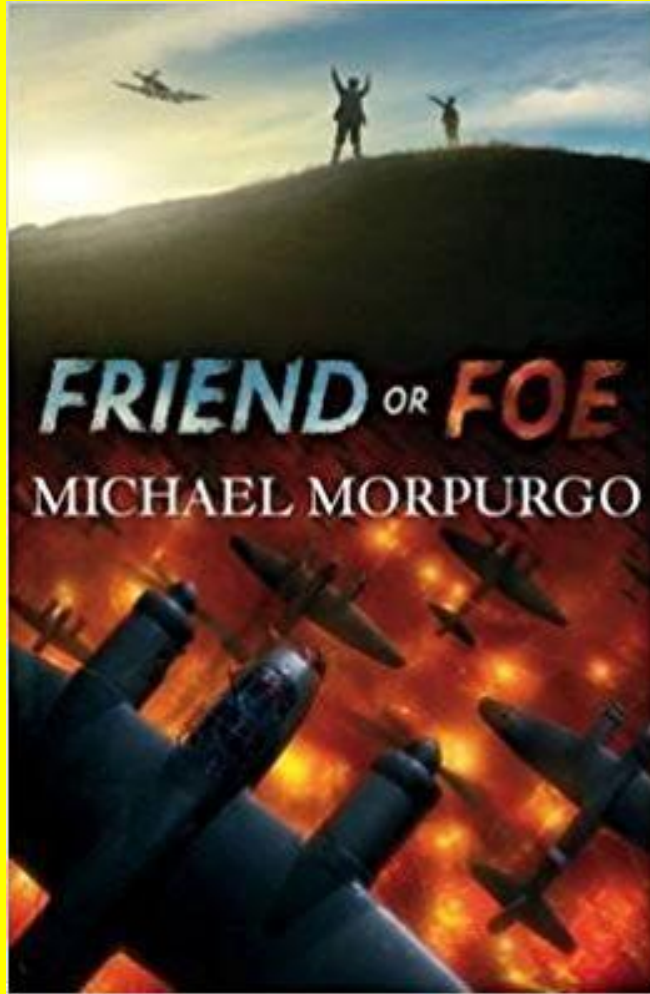

I am starting to ...

I need more support to ...

LC: Can I edit and improve my
informal letter?

What has happened so far?

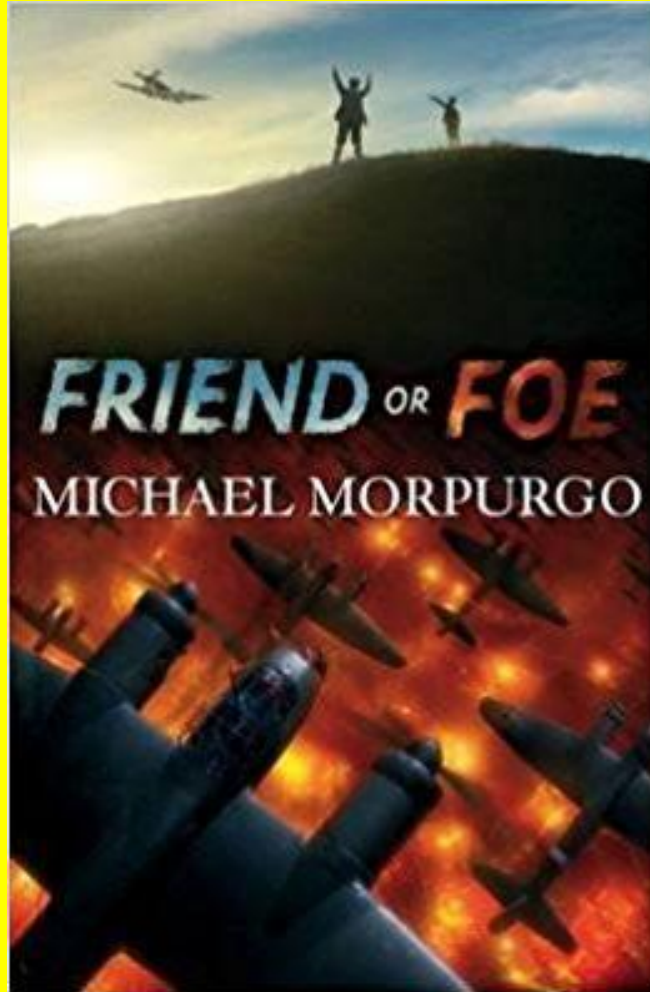

Can you explain what has happened in the story so far?

So far in the story....

What will happen next?

30 second summary challenge

HOW CAN I IMPROVE MY WORK?

Today we are going to edit and improve your work by checking your punctuation, especially apostrophes.

What are the two reasons we use apostrophes for?

Possession

Contracting

WHAT ARE CONTRACTING APOSTROPHES?

Do not

Don't

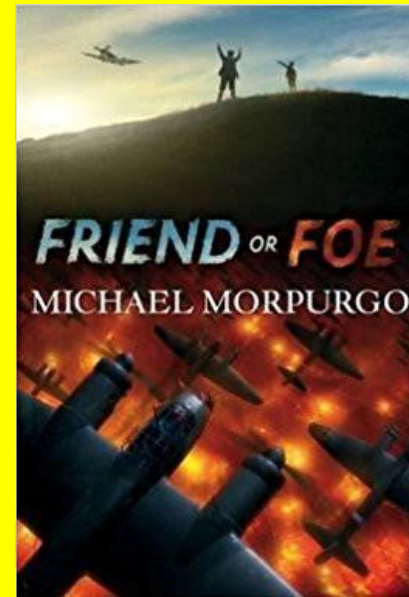

I am

I'm

He will

He'll

A contraction is a shortened form of a word (or group of words) that omits certain letters or sounds. In a contraction, an apostrophe represents missing letters.

These children are talking very fast and squeezing together some of their words. Can you change the words that have apostrophes in them so that they are saying two words rather than one?

I can not ride a skateboard. I am scared of falling off.

Do not worry, it is easy. I will show you how.

Do you think we will be taller next year?

Yes, we are growing all the time!

Show answers

Can you write down your own conversation between two children using contractions with an apostrophe to show missing letters?

INFORMAL LETTER

46 Islington Rd,
London,
N18 7JW

Dear mum,
Im really sorry for not writing to you sooner I was really busy in the past 1 week I had to evacuate and it was the hardest thing to do in my life. I am really dreadful that you had to stay behind. I hope you dont die also I hope you recive this letter. By the way were and what are you doing are you in the war like a nurse or something? If you are be safe.

Can you improve your partners?

Can you improve their punctuation?
What is missing?

How can we improve this?

- Has the letter got all the features that an informal letter should have? Rhetorical questions? Address?
- Has it got informal language?
- Has it got thoughts and feelings?
- Are all the spellings correct? Paragraphs used? Full stops
- Relative clauses?

I am able to ...

I am starting to ...

I need more support to ...

BIG WRITE

LC: Can I write an informal letter?

	Instructions
I think	Remember:	My Partner thinks	My Teacher thinks
	I can use the correct structure for a letter (address, ending, dear,)
	I can use thoughts and feelings.
	I can use informal language
What I like
What I need to improve			