

The passage below is from further ahead in the text. What questions do you have about this? Write three questions in the spaces below, and record your thoughts about each question.

On my Vision Quest, I could take no food, only a skin bag of water. And I would not sleep for three days and nights. During the nights, I must sit within the sacred circle made from my hand-chosen, dazzling white rocks, which I would carry up the mountainside. If I left the circle, I would fail the test.

Blank space for writing a question and thoughts.

Blank space for writing a question and thoughts.

Blank space for writing a question and thoughts.

Feedback