

My Granny's Great Escape

Nicholas' granny is sixty-two and in love with the boy next door. The 'boy' is Lancelot. He has a ponytail, drives a motorbike and is sixty-five! Lancelot has moved in with his son, Mr Tugg, who is Nicholas' dad's arch enemy.

Soon Lancelot falls in love with Granny and they ride his motorbike through the park causing chaos. Dad disapproves of his mother not acting her age, but she announces that she is going to marry Lancelot. Dad agrees with Mr Tugg (after a row) that the wedding must not happen. So he locks Granny in her room and Mr Tugg locks Lancelot in his. However, Lancelot escapes and tries to see Granny. A giant teddy bear is delivered to her. It turns out that Lancelot is hiding inside it! They escape from her room by abseiling out of the window using sheets knotted together.

Dad discovers Granny gone and an advert for 'Heavenly Weddings' for people who want to get married in a hot air balloon. Everyone races to the field where the balloon is. Dad pulls on the rope and stops the balloon taking off properly, but the rope and Dad get tangled in trees. Lancelot heroically climbs over the side of the balloon's basket and cuts the rope free. They all come down to earth and go home.

After Lancelot saves Dad he finally realises that Lancelot is a 'good chap'. It all ends happily when Dad hires a bouncy castle so that Granny can marry her 'knight', Lancelot, in the garden.
