

Make a collage (a group) of people who are inspiring to you. This could be anyone from family and friends, to sporting heroes or religious leaders. You collect or draw pictures and you put them onto a piece of paper. Your pictures can be copied from the internet, out of magazines or drawn.

Work can be completed in your pink book, on paper or online.

Here are some examples of how to create a collage.

