

MON – LC: Can I plan an alternative ending for oranges in Man's Land?

Think about how the story 'Oranges in No Man's Land' ended.

What do you think would have happened if the father hadn't come back?

Think about:

- What would the family have done?
- Where would they have gone?
- Where would they live and get food from?

Plan your ending.

Remember, that a plan is just the barebones of the story and doesn't have to be written in paragraphs. It can just be bullet pointed notes.
