

Fairtrade

What Does Fair Trade Mean?

Some people get money by growing or making things to sell. The products are sold all over the world. The Fairtrade Foundation helps people to get a fair price for the things that we buy. A fair price helps people to live well.

This is the Fairtrade Mark

How Does Fairtrade Help?

- It gets better prices for crops.
- It checks that people have a fair job.
- Extra money is given to groups of people.

How Can You Help?

Buy products that have the Fairtrade Mark on.

Here are some foods that might have a Fairtrade Mark:

Questions

1. Where are products sold? Tick one.
 - the world
 - the UK
 - England
2. How does a fair price help people? Tick one.
 - to live well
 - to buy and sell
 - to grow and make
3. Who is extra money given to? Tick one.
 - families
 - farmers
 - groups of people
4. How do you know if something is fair trade? Tick one.
 - It is cheap.
 - It has the Fairtrade Mark.
 - It costs lots of money.
5. Which foods might be fair trade? Tick one.
 - bananas
 - bread
 - water
 - milk

Reading

25.5.21

Read 'Our house' and answer the questions about it. Use the sentence starters to help you.

1.	Page 9 PROVE IT:	Why does the narrator say that he 'doubts people would bother to stop'? What's your first impression of the house?
2.	Page 10 PROVE IT:	What does he feel about sharing a bedroom with Carl?
3.	Page 11 PROVE IT:	What does Bounder think about the family eating their dinner on the couch?
4.	Page 12 FIND IT:	What happens when Grandad is bathing Bounder?
5.	Page 13 PROVE IT:	I think the narrator wants us to know he quite likes his house. Which sentence tells us this? Do you think he likes Bounder?

EXT:

6.	Page 14 FIND IT:	Why is the narrator proud of Carl? What did Grandad ask Carl?
7.	Page 15 PROVE IT:	What does the narrator really like about his house?

Reading

Sentence starters

1. The narrator says this because...

My first impression of the house is...

2. The narrator feels... because...

3. Bouncer thinks.... because...

4. Grandad when he is bathing Bouncer.

5. The sentence that tells us this is.....

I think that he does/does not like Bouncer because...

EXT:

6. The narrator is proud of Carl because...

Grandad asked Carl...

7. The narrator really likes...

