

Safety in Numbers Questions

What happened unexpectedly at the end of the story? Tick one.

The fox attacked the cockerel.

The cockerel escaped from the dog.

The dog stepped in to protect the cockerel.

The cockerel defended the fox from the dog.

In which places would a sleeping animal be found in this story? Tick two.

at the farmyard

inside the trunk of the tree

upon a branch of the tree

amongst the roots of the tree

What did the cockerel typically do whilst rousing the farmer? Tick three.

stand on his tiptoes

fly towards the farmer's window

flap his wings

crow loudly

Safety in Numbers Questions Answers

What happened unexpectedly at the end of the story? Tick one.

The fox attacked the cockerel.

The cockerel escaped from the dog.

The dog stepped in to protect the cockerel.

The cockerel defended the fox from the dog.

In which places would a sleeping animal be found in this story? Tick two.

at the farmyard

inside the trunk of the tree

upon a branch of the tree

amongst the roots of the tree

What did the cockerel typically do whilst rousing the farmer? Tick three.

stand on his tiptoes

fly towards the farmer's window

flap his wings

crow loudly