

Parts of a diary entry

Thursday 21st March

Dear Diary,

You would not believe what happened today! I had the best time at granny's! I found diamonds. I couldn't believe my eyes. There were so many of them, I put them back but kept thinking about them!

I had to go home after that but I will be going back very soon!

Diary entries have the date at the top

They can start as if writing a letter

Include personal feelings and thoughts

Diaries are written in the past tense

Describe the events in the order they happen

They are written in the first person
