

The Silk Road

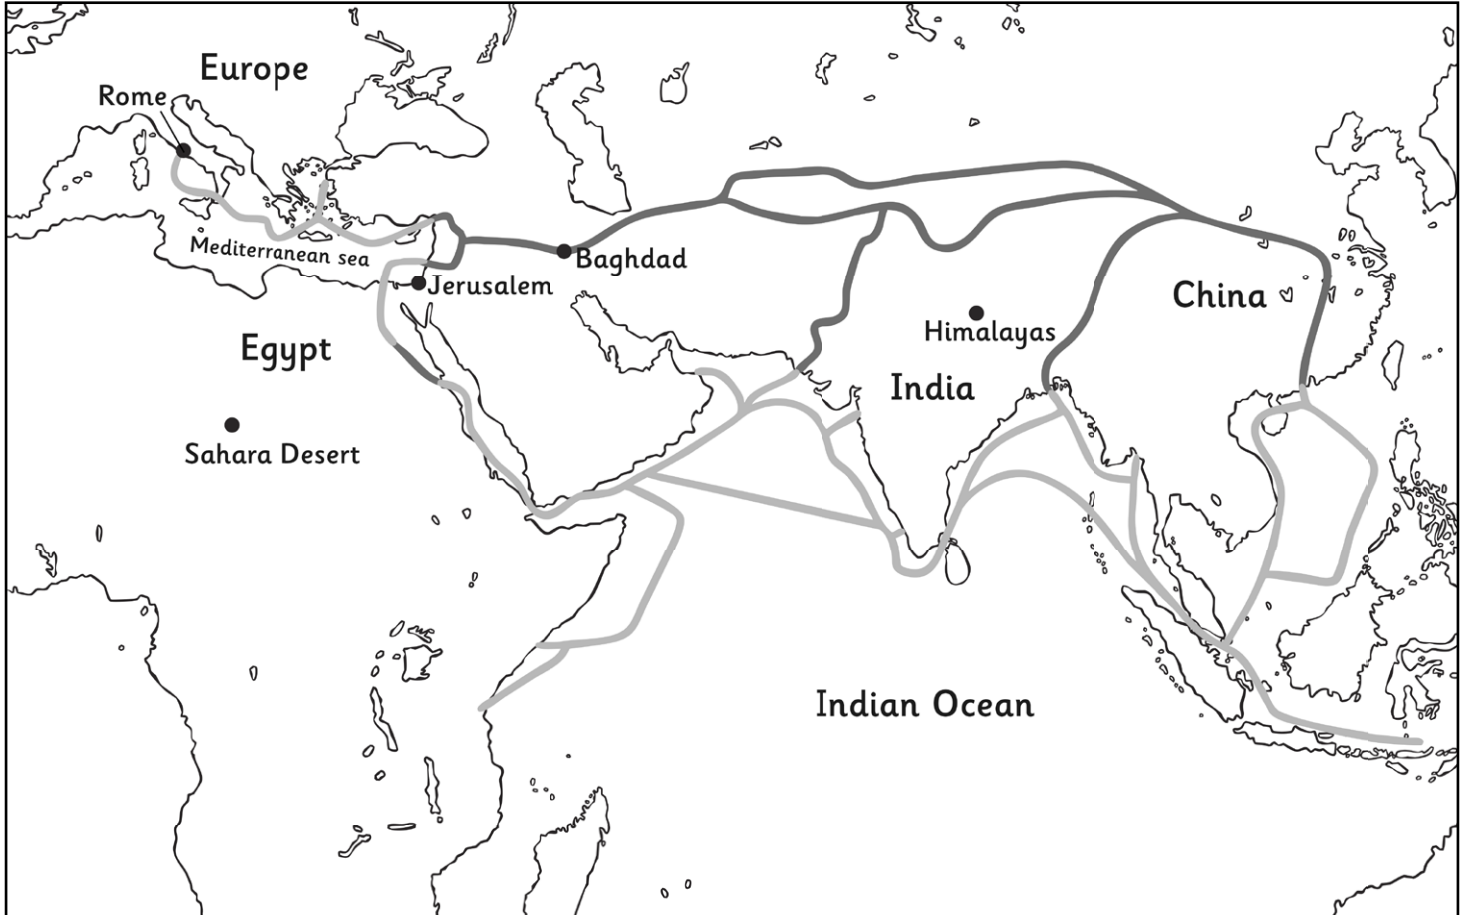

- Use maps or atlases to help you mark the following places on this map showing the Silk Road trading routes: Baghdad, Europe, Egypt, China, India.
- What other significant places could also be included?
- What items did the different places offer for trade?

The Silk Road - Answers

- Use maps or atlases to help you mark the following places on this map showing the Silk Road trading routes: Baghdad, Europe, Egypt, China, India.
- What other significant places could also be included?
- What items did the different places offer for trade?

- Spices mainly came from Central Asia and India. Different spices came from different regions.
- Gold was found in Europe and China.
- Silk from India and China.
- Paper could be bought from China and Egypt.
- Ivory, from elephant tusks, was found in India and China.