

Twister!

Dust-swirling,
Air-twirling,
Cloud-breaking,
Rain-making,
Wind-churning,
Sky-turning,
Wild-spinning,
Land-thinning,
Car-smashing,
House-bashing,
Tree-slashing,
Town-trashing,
Child-scaring,
Non-caring,
Mad-raging,
War-waging,
Torn-ading...
Twister!

1. According to the poem, what does the twister do to children?

2. What do you think it means by 'land-thinning'?

3. Why do you think the poem looks the way it does?

4. Imagine the poet has asked you to add an extra line into the poem. Without repeating any of the words, what could it be?
