1. Aims

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) at our school are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of their physical development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of relationships, equality and respect
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies
- To try to help pupils stay safe from the harms of alcohol, tobacco and illegal substances

2. Statutory requirements

As a maintained primary school we must provide relationships education to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social work act 2017.

However, we are not required to provide sex education and we will not do so. But we do need to teach the elements of sex education contained in the science curriculum i.e. Puberty in Year 5.

In teaching RSE, we must have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state as outlined statutory guidance from the Department for Education issued under Section 80A of the Education Act 2002 and section 403 of the Education Act 1996, contained in Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) and Health Education Statutory guidance for governing bodies, proprietors, head teachers, principals, senior leadership teams, teachers 2025

At Palfrey Junior School we teach RSE as set out in this policy.

3. Policy development

This policy has been developed in consultation with staff, governors and parents. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

1. Review – Heads of School mapped the previous curriculum and examined all relevant information including the new RSE national guidelines. They then created new programmes of study that met all legal requirements.

2. Staff consultation – all school staff were given the opportunity to look at the policy and schemes of work and make recommendations
3. Governors' consultation – all Governors were given the opportunity to look at the policy and schemes of work and make recommendations
4. Parent/stakeholder consultation – parents and any interested parties were given half a term to ask questions about the scheme of work, express their feelings and suggest recommendations
5. Ratification – once amendments were made, the policy was shared again with governors and ratified.

4. Definition

RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of pupils, and involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.

RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.

RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity or particular personal choices.

5. Curriculum

Our curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1 but we may need to adapt it as and when necessary.

We have developed the curriculum in consultation with parents, governors and staff, taking into account the age, needs and feelings of pupils. If pupils ask questions outside the scope of this policy, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and don't seek answers online.

Primary sex education will focus on preparing boys and girls for the changes that adolescence brings which will be delivered in Year 5.

For more information about our curriculum, see our curriculum map in Appendix 1.

6. Delivery of RSE

RSE is taught within the personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education curriculum. Biological aspects of RSE are taught within the science curriculum, and other aspects are included in Religious Education (RE). There will also be two stand-alone weeks where the lessons taught in the new scheme of work (see Appendix 1) will be taught. These will be delivered in the first and second halves of the summer term respectively in order to ensure the maximum maturity of the pupils in each year group and as a safeguarding measure to help empower children to resist any outside influences met with during the summer holiday or on transition to secondary school.

Pupils also receive stand-alone puberty sessions in Year 5, taught in single sex classes by experienced teachers.

Relationships education focuses on teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships including:

- Families and people who care for me
- Caring friendships
- Respectful relationships
- Online relationships
- Being safe

For more information about our RSE curriculum, see Appendices 1 and 2. Please also see the PHSE policy and schemes of work which cover the 2025 statutory changes to RSE teaching of:

- Online and financial harms and age restrictions
- Children understanding their bodies, staying safe and identifying the signs of abuse
- Personal safety and risk
- Assertiveness and personal boundaries
- Managing difficult feelings
- Resisting pressure to share online/sexting
- First aid
- Vaping
- AI and deep fakes
- Misinformation/disinformation/fake news
- Change and loss

The topic of bereavement will become statutory in September 2026 and our policies and schemes of work will change in line with this.

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances.

7. Roles and responsibilities

7.1 The Governing Board

The governing board will approve the RSE policy, and hold the SLT to account for its implementation.

7.2 The Senior Leadership Team

The SLT are responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from non-statutory/non-science components of RSE (see section 8).

7.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Monitoring progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents may have questions about the curriculum

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the SLT.

7.4 Pupils

Pupils are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

8. Parents' right to withdraw

Parents do not have the right to withdraw their children from relationships education.

Parents have the legal right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory/non-science components of sex education within RSE. However the school will not be teaching any non-statutory/non science components of sex education within the RSE curriculum.

9. Training

Staff are trained on the delivery of RSE as part of their induction and it is included in our continuing professional development calendar.

The SLT will also invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE as appropriate.

10. Monitoring arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by the SLT through:

- Observations
- Learning walks
- Work scrutinies
- Staff and pupils voice

Pupils' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

This policy will be reviewed by the Governing Board every year or sooner should any changes in legislation occur. At every review, the policy will be approved by the Governing Board.
