

Think and Write: Silent Meditation

Click to view image full screen

Use this photograph as your inspiration to think and write. Use the following pattern of sentences:

- Sentence 1 Must contain an expanded noun phrase.
- Sentence 2 Must include a word beginning with the prefix im-.
- Sentence 3 Needs to include an apostrophe to show plural possession.
- Sentence 4 Must contain the verb 'meditate' in the simple present tense.
- Sentence 5 Needs to contain an adverb.

Read your passage to your partner– does it include everything we are looking for?

Back

Example Answers

Silent Meditation

Here's an example of what you could have thought and written...

expanded noun phrase

These devoted Buddhist monks wear soft, orange robes made from donated cloth. Many prefix im-

years ago, the first robes were impressively patched together from rags of unwanted

plural possession cloth. The monks' robes are dyed bright colours with the use of plants and spices. Monks

simple present tense

adverb

wear robes whilst they meditate. Unbelievably, this can be for many hours at a time.